iVision named to Inc. Magazine's List of Fastest-Growing Companies for Third Consecutive Year: The firm ranked #91 nationally in the IT services category; #6 locally

ATLANTA (September 1, 2011) -- iVision, the technology integration and transformation engineers, today announced the firm's inclusion at #907 on the 30th annual Inc. 500 | 5,000 list of the fastest-growing private companies in the United States. iVision is among a select group of companies to make the prestigious ranking for three consecutive years. The firm ranked #91 within the IT Services Category nationally, and it was recognized as the #6-fastest growing IT services firm in Atlanta, the sixth-most-competitive market for privately held companies. iVision also ranked #31 in Atlanta across all markets.

"We are particularly proud to be listed for three consecutive years," said Gabe Damiani, co-founder and CEO of iVision. "The fact we have achieved rapid growth during such a challenging time for so many others in our industry speaks to the exceptional talent of our team."

Jane Berentson, Inc. Editor in Chief, acknowledged the challenging macroeconomic climate this year's honorees faced: "More than ever, this year's list is a testament to the creativity, resilience and tenacity of America's top entrepreneurs."

In 2009, during one of the worst global economic downturns in history, iVision ranked #473 on Inc.'s annual list. The firm ranked #753 overall in 2010. That same year, it was #69 in the IT Services Category nationally and the second-fastest-growing company in the category in Atlanta.

"We recently organized the firm into five complementary practices to best manage our growth trajectory," said Stuart Cartin, iVision's co-founder and CIO. "Our Infrastructure Services, Data Center, Converged Network and Application Development practices – all supported by the Delivery Assurance team – engineer success for our clients worldwide everyday."

David Degitz, iVision's COO, acknowledged the firm's clients and their role in helping place the firm on this year's list. "The Inc. ranking is truly a reflection of our loyal clients and our employees, and the remarkable things we have collectively accomplished in 2011," said Degitz. "We look forward to our next phase of healthy company growth."
