iVision Recognized with the 2011 Microsoft Greater South East Customer Satisfaction Award

Atlanta — 8.10.11— iVision, the technology integration and transformation engineers, today announced that the company won the 2011 Microsoft Southeast District Customer Satisfaction Award. Microsoft recognized iVision during a ceremony at the Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference in Los Angeles last week.

“The Field Partner Awards Program gives Microsoft the opportunity to recognize its top regional partners at a global event. It acknowledges the extraordinary contributions of Microsoft partners serving small, mid-market and enterprise commercial customers throughout the past fiscal year,” said Jack Braman, Vice President-East Region, Small and Mid-market Solutions and Partners (SMS&P) for Microsoft.

iVision was honored among Microsoft’s top partners for demonstrating excellence in innovation and implementation of customer solutions based on Microsoft technology. The award is a reflection of the iVision’s service-centric approach.

“iVision has always been focused first and foremost on delivering white glove service for our customers,” said Stuart Cartin, Chief Technology Officer for iVision. “To be recognized by Microsoft for this – a core focus of our company culture – is truly exciting and a testament to our team’s dedication to exceeding our clients’ expectations.”

Awards were presented in multiple categories, with winners and finalists chosen from a set of more than 200 organizations across the East. iVision was recognized for providing outstanding solutions and services, as well as demonstrating excellent engagement in the Southeast region.

“We are pleased to present iVision with this award,” said Braman. “iVision is seen as a leader in the Southeast region in the area of Customer Satisfaction. They show a strong commitment to commercial customers throughout the geography.” For more information please contact Jon Rydarowski | jrydarowski@ivision.com
